LOUISVILLE RESIDENTS SENTENCED FOR SHOPLIFTING FROM FORT KNOX POST EXCHANGE

David L. Huber, United States Attorney for the Western District of Kentucky, announced today that DELOIS J. WILLIAMS, age 59, of Louisville, Kentucky and KAY L. CASON, age 39, of Louisville, Kentucky, were sentenced in United States District Court, Louisville, Kentucky, for felony shoplifting from the Fort Knox Main Post Exchange (PX).

Judge Charles R. Simpson III, United States District Court, sentenced both defendants to 1 year probation. As a condition of their probation, neither defendant will be able to enter onto military property anywhere in the United States.

Williams and Cason had pled guilty to felony shoplifting from the Fort Knox AAFES (a military department store) for the purpose of stealing merchandise worth $1,125.75.

The case was prosecuted by Special Assistant United States Attorney Dan E. Stigall and was investigated by the United States Army Military Police Investigations Section.
